Two Events Designed To Make Any Dad Smile

Wings and Wheels – Classic Airplanes and Automobiles In Chantilly

Celebrate Father's Day weekend with two special events in Chantilly. The Steven F. Udvar-Hazy Center at the National Air and Space Museum hosts Become A Pilot Family Day on Saturday, June 17, from 10am to 4pm. Admission is free and parking is $12 per car. Call 202-633-1000 for more information.

On Sunday, June 18, enjoy the 33rd Antique Car Show at Sully Historic Site from 10 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. Co-sponsored by the Fairfax County Park Authority and the Model A Ford Club of America, the annual event features cars, trucks and motorcycles through 1972. Admission is $8 for adults, $7 for seniors and $5 for children. Free parking is available on the grounds.

With more than 400 antique and classic vehicles filling the grounds, this is the largest car show in Northern Virginia. Trophies will be awarded in all classes. You can purchase the car of your dreams at the Car Corral, watch a Model T take-apart demonstration, or find the perfect auto accessory, crafts and antiques in the Flea Market. The 2006 limited edition collectable car show pins will be available from the Car Club for $5 each.

Enjoy a delicious lunch from our food court. Rock 'n roll to music of the 50s with Jumpin' Jupiter and swing with the Fairfax Symphony Dixieland Band.

A guided tour of the first floor of the main house is included in admission. Sully was the home of Richard Bland Lee, Northern Virginia's first congressman. Built in 1794, Sully is owned and operated by the Fairfax County Park Authority.

Sully is located in Chantilly, Virginia, on Route 28 northbound, ¼ mile north of Route 50 and four miles south of the Dulles Toll Road.
